A Time for Everything

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 English Standard Version (ESV)

The day the Lord created hope was probably the same day he created Spring. ~Bern Williams
Springtime is the land awakening. The March winds are the morning yawn. ~Quoted by Lewis Grizzard

In the spring I have counted one hundred and thirty-six different kinds of weather inside of four and twenty hours. ~Mark Twain

Spring has returned. The Earth is like a child that knows poems. ~Rainer Maria Rilke

If I had my life to live over, I would start barefoot earlier in the spring and stay that way later in the fall.
